A STORY OF HOW GOD IS AT WORK..... AND WHICH CONFIRMS THAT PRAYER WORKS!!

One of the most exciting things about walking with our workers in prayer is hearing amazing stories of God at work, like this one from a family you've been praying for, who serve in a Southeast Asian country where they encounter people daily who've never heard of Jesus.

"On one of our last rural road trips, we met so many boys and girls in villages in the rain without shoes. It stuck with us and we felt compelled to do something. We decided to buy lots of shoes and plan another trip.

"While ordering some Bible-based books for kids, a local shopkeeper told us he'd give us some books for free because we're such good customers. When the books arrived, we opened the box and just smiled. The free books we'd never ordered were entitled 'Sandals from Heaven' – a story about a little boy in a village who dreamed of a pair of shoes and finally got a pair through prayer.

*"These books were the perfect educational gift in the local language to give out along with the pairs of shoes we'd planned. But they were also a beautiful confirmation for us. A sign that we're on the right track and that as we pray, God moves our hearts for the next step and ultimately, He's at work in wonderful ways we never could expect or write.

"It's such a joy to experience times like this with God and to know He is our guide, our strength and our provider. We hope that you too are encouraged and blessed by this little story and know God's leading in every area of your lives, too."
